ON THE EDGE

Mark Horton

With the end of the qualifying contest in sight it was time to focus on the battle to avoid 'relegation'. In Round 8 the draw brought together two teams I had predicted would be major contenders, Canada McGill and Sweden who were languishing in 19th and 20th position. A big win for one of them would renew their hopes, at the same time almost certainly condemning the losers to the third place Swiss.

Both teams fielded some of their biggest guns.

North led the ♦Q for the king and ace and South switched to the ♣K followed by the seven. Declarer ruffed, cashed the top hearts and exited with a diamond. North won and played the ♣A which saw declarer ruff and play a spade, North taking the ace, +140.

East led the ♥J and West played king followed by the ace, declarer ruffing and playing the ♦Q for the king and ace. He continued with a low club to the ace and East's queen was the setting trick, -50 and only 3 IMPs for Sweden.

9 pairs attempted 5♣ (one went on to 6♣) but no-one found a route to 11 tricks. After the 3♥ overcall I would be inclined to play East for length in clubs, but you will also need the diamond finesse and for East to hold the ♠K.

In other matches East sometimes opened 1♦ while after an initial pass South was the first to speak. Given a free run North may have a choice between opening 1♣ and 1♠.

East led the ♦A and continued with the seven and declarer could not avoid the loss of spade and a heart, -100.

It appears you can make 4♠ - one South managed it when West did not find the essential spade lead (yes, South was declarer after a complex multi auction).

If North is declarer in 4♠ and East leads a club you must win in hand and play a heart. Basically you play to set up dummy's hearts, playing low towards the ♠J at some point. Hard to reach and tough to play.

Declarer won in dummy, cashed another spade, played a diamond to the ace and a club. When North discarded he was three down, -300.

North led the ♦2 and declarer won with the queen and played a club for the queen and king. South played back a diamond for the nine and ten and North switched to the ♥7. South took the ace and continued with the jack. It did not matter what declarer did now, the defenders were sure to take six tricks, -100 but a 5 IMP swing.

9 pairs stopped short of 3NT, but there were only three plus scores in the EW column.

On Board 5 EW held

- ♠ 9753 ♥ 532 ♦ AQ42 ♣ J9 opposite
- ♠ QJ84 ♥ AK1096 ♦ K9 ♣ A10.

Sweden stopped in 3♥ while Canada bid 4♠. South held ♠2 ♥Q87 ♦J86 ♣Q8643.

Leading a spade against 3♥ saw declarer record an effortless +170, but 4♠ could not survive the 4-1 trump break so Sweden pocketed 6 IMPs.

14 pairs made game with the EW cards.

East was not sure about the meaning of his 3♣ bid – clearly he was hoping it was Staymanic.

North led the ♦9 and it was covered in turn by the jack, queen and ace. A heart to the king was followed by the ♠2 for the nine, ten and queen and North returned the ♥3. Declarer put up dummy's queen and unblocked the ten when South discarded the ♦4. A spade to the ace and a club to the queen were followed by two more spades, but declarer was out of ammunition and finished one down, -50.

It's worth noting South's play of the ♠9. If he plays the four declarer can put in the seven. We'll see why that is important in a moment.

As the play went, after taking the ♠Q North must leave the heart suit alone, as if declarer plays low from dummy he will secure nine tricks. After a risky club switch declarer can win with dummy's queen and play a spade, but South goes up with the jack, forcing declarer to win with the ace. When he continues with the ♥10 North must rise with the ace and with no entry to hand declarer will be a trick short. It's safer for North to return a spade rather than a club. However, if South does not put in the ♠9 on the first round of the suit declarer will have an extra entry to hand in spades.

Declarer can avoid this issue by playing dummy's ♠8 at trick three, intending to run it. That way he preserves two entries to hand (now it does not help South to cover with the nine).

You might like to consider how the play might go if South had been dealt the ♠QJ9. Then he could put up an honour on the first round of spades and assuming West wins and plays the ♥10 North can win with the ace and return a spade.

Declarer can avoid all problems by playing a heart to the eight at trick two, which is by no means impossible. (The six declarers who made 3NT all played hearts in this fashion.)

By the way, if declarer ducks the first round of diamonds South has the opportunity to find a club switch (not an easy play to find).

West led the ♣2 and East won with the queen and switched to the ♦J for the king and ace. The ♥4 saw declarer take dummy's ace, ruff a heart and cash the ♦Q. The ♣J was overtaken by dummy's king and when that held declarer ruffed a heart and exited with the ♣9, East taking the ace and returning the ♥Q. Declarer ruffed with the ♦7 and West overruffed and exited with the ♦3 to declarer's ten, East discarding the ♠8.

Everyone was down to three spades and when declarer played a spade to the queen he was two down, -300 and 8 IMPs worse off.

If declarer guesses to exit with the ♠J he saves a trick.

On Board 12 NS held:

♠ K765 ♥ AJ10 ♦ 642 ♣ KJ3 (North) and

♠ A1093 ♥ 4 ♦ AK97 ♣ AQ87 (South).

6♠ is reasonable, but West held:

♠ 84 ♥ Q876532 ♦ 53 ♣ 109 and Fallenius opened 3♥. After two passes South doubled and then passed North's 3NT. In the other room West opened 2♥ and South's double attracted the same 3NT response.

9 pairs managed to reach 6♠ but only Bill Pettis and Kent Goulding of USA Hopkins had to contend with a 3♥ opening. North jumped to 4♠ over South's double and after using RKCB South bid the slam.

West led the ♣J which ran to declarer's queen. Two rounds of hearts were followed by a spade to the queen and ace and in due course declarer lost a trick to the ♦Q for +420.

You may think West was unlucky, but leading away from a king is not without risk – and many players are unwilling to take it.

Here too the lead was a club, but East's ♣4 meant declarer had some work to do. Dummy's queen was covered by the king and ace and declarer played a heart for the jack and king and a second heart to the ace. A spade to the king was followed by a club and West won and played the ♠7, East winning with the ten, cashing the ♥Q and continuing with the ♠A.

Declarer ruffed in dummy and played the ♦K and then ran the jack to East's queen, -50 and a 10 IMP swing that moved the Canadians ahead, 30-25.

Having won with dummy's king declarer tried a low club for the queen and king and South exited with a club which went to declarer's jack. The ♠A and a spade ruff were followed by a diamond ruff and a club to the ace but North could ruff and draw the last trump for three down, -300 and another 4 IMPs.

By picking up 11 IMPs over the last four deals of the match Sweden had won 36-30, 11.59-8.41 VP. That left them in 19th while the Canadians dropped to 22nd. They would both need something special in the next two rounds.

HOW TO OPEN OR DOWNLOAD BBO FILE OF THE MATCH

In 2021 BBO files of the matches were easily accessible directly from the website of the tournament. Now BBO works only through browsers, not in the client/server mode and it is slightly more difficult.

We received some questions from tournament participants how they could find BBO files (*.lin) of the matches. It is possible, I dare say even quite simple. Here is step by step instruction:

1. Website of the tournament
<https://r.pzbs.pl/2022/tsc/web/> should be entered.
2. „RESULTS” tab should be clicked
<https://r.pzbs.pl/2022/tsc/0/>
3. „ROUNDS RESULTS” should be chosen:
<https://r.pzbs.pl/2022/tsc/0/#0000000001001002000000000>
4. Round number should be clicked.
5. Appropriate match should be chosen and scores of the second part should be clicked:

7. Then you will be able to see match scorecard with link to each board at each table
